

For Immediate Release
April 14, 2008

Contact: Office of Public Affairs, 703-417-8370

REAGAN NATIONAL AIRPORT HOSTS 9th ANNUAL D.C. PUBLIC SCHOOLS ART EXHIBIT

Over 300 Works of Student Art Displayed in Baggage Claim Area

The Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority invites the community to enjoy works of art created by 300 District of Columbia students. The exhibit is currently on display at Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport.

This 9th Annual D.C. Public Schools Citywide Student Art Exhibition runs through June 12; located in the baggage claim level of Terminal B/C. The exhibit's theme "From Perception to Expression" is reflected in the works of kindergartners through 12th graders from more than 75 District of Columbia schools.

MEDIA PHOTO OPPORTUNITY: The Airports Authority will host a reception for the student artists, their teachers and families on Wednesday, May 7 at 6 p.m. in the lobby of historic Terminal A.

#